NOTES:

Examples of declarations that could be made.

A) Surviving husband/wife:

That said John Smith* died intestate, leaving an estate of insufficient value for which it was required by law to apply for Grant of Letters of Administration and THAT I Mary Smith am his lawful surviving wife and lawful next of kin. I am therefore the present rightful owner of the said Exclusive Right of Burial.

B) Surviving children:

The said John Smith * died a widower intestate leaving an estate of insufficient value for which it was required by law to apply for Grant of Letters of Administration and THAT James Smith, Emma Smith and myself the said Steven Smith are his only lawful surviving children and next of kin and therefore the present rightful owners of the said Right of Burial.

C) Surviving children, only one to take over the ownership:

The said John Smith* died a widower intestate leaving an estate of insufficient value for which it was required by law to apply for Grant of Letters of Administration THAT James Smith, Emma Smith and myself the said Steven Smith are his only lawful surviving children and next of kin and therefore the present rightful owners of the said Right of Burial BUT James and Emma Smith desire that the exclusive Right of Burial be vested solely in my name as Steven Smith and have given their consent in the document attached hereto which I declare to be genuine.

Please note in this scenario a Form of Renunciation should be attached to the Statutory Declaration from those children who do not want to be registered as owners.
